Table

Here lieth the body of Mr. John Hurley, Custom House Officer, of this place.

As he was endeavouring to extinguish some fire made between Beer and Seaton as a signal to a smuggling boat then off at sea, he fell by some means or other from the Top of the Cliff to the bottom, by which he was unfortunately killed.

This unhappy accident happened on the 9th of August in the year of our Lord 1755

Aetatis Suae 45.

He was a brave and diligent Officer, and very inoffensive in his life and conversation
