

Update on Branscombe WW1 pewter mugs

Alan Rockey has found a newspaper article about the presentation of the Branscombe WW1 mugs. He has also located Walter Tedbury's medals in the Allhallows Museum in Honiton. They tie up with the service number he has for Walter Tedbury of Coxes farm Branscombe. Below is the newspaper article.

VACANT.

BRANSCOMBE.

A successful concert has been held in the schoolroom in aid of the Social Club, and the programme highly appreciated by a large audience. Great praise is due to Mrs. Restorick and her concert party for the interest they have taken in the Club, which is a great boon to the men of the village. At the close of the concert, each Service man was presented with a tankard with his name engraved, and the dates, 1914-19. Mrs. Chick presented the tankards, and spoke very kindly of the men who had done such noble work for their country. Major Berka proposed a vote of thanks to Mrs. Chick, which was heartily responded to. The concert realised £9 17s 9d. A whist drive and dance have been held in aid of the above Club. Prize winners:—Ladies: 1st, Mrs. Hollingworth; 2nd, Miss E. Dowell; 3rd, Mrs. Stone.

Gents: 1st, Mr. Batty; 2nd, Mr. L. Lee; 3rd, Mr. W. Gush. For the dance, Miss R. Gill presided at the piano. The sum of £6 2s 9d was realised.
